Harvest

...a time forgetting

HARVEST

...that time of year again, when we remember and give thanks for all the good things provided for us.

Yet, how easy it is to forget... or take for granted the work of those through which we have the necessities of life.

Above all, however, what about the One whose hand provides much more than we may think...

At this time of Harvest let's give thanks for all the good things we enjoy...

...and remember not to forget the greatest gift of all...

Harvest...

In our high-tech, sophisticated society how easy it is to hunger for more and more... in what seems an endless search for contentment.

Yet we'll never know true fulfilment unless we realise that the nagging 'gap' in our lives is meant only for God.

To find a true personal relationship with Him we need to remember the words of His Son, the Lord Jesus Christ, who says...

I am the bread of life. Whoever comes to me will never go hungry, and whoever believes in me will never be thirsty.

John 6:35

I am the way and the truth and the life. No-one comes to the Father except through me.

John 14:6

...a time forgetting

But of course in seeking an intimate friendship with a holy God, the kind of people we are is a major obstacle...

If we claim to be without sin, we deceive ourselves and the truth is not in us.

1 John 1:8

Just as the farmer will do all he can to improve the quality of his crop, so we may try to live a decent life and so 'earn' acceptance with God. But the truth is, we all fall short of His standard, and one day we'll be called to give account of how we've lived our lives...

...people are destined to die once, and after that to face judgment.

Hebrews 9:27

Yet thankfully God offers hope now, for the present and for the future...

Harvest...

It's usually at this time of year that we're reminded of all we've received to meet our physical and material needs. Of course, our greatest need of all is to 'get right' with God... and this is possible only through receiving His greatest gift...

God demonstrates his own love for us in this: While we were still sinners, Christ died for us.

Romans 5:8

So we must be ready to seek His forgiveness, turn away from all we know to be wrong, and ask the risen Christ Jesus into our lives to become our Saviour and Lord...

...to all who received him, to those who believed in his name, he gave the right to become children of God.

John 1:12

This is the way to a completely new beginning...

...if anyone is in Christ, that person is a new creation. The old has gone, the new is here!

2 Corinthians 5:17

...a time forgiving

And in making this discovery, we'll be willing to accept the terms He lays down for all who would be His true followers...

Whoever wants to be my disciple must deny themselves and take up their cross daily and follow me.

Luke 9:23

It would be nice to think that just as the sun and rain are there for our physical benefit, so God will automatically take care of our eternal well-being. But in this we face the greatest challenge of all...

For God so loved the world that he gave his one and only Son, that whoever believes in him shall not perish but have eternal life.

John 3:16

...but whoever does not believe stands condemned already...

John 3:18

At this time of year as we remember with gratitude all that we've received, there will be those of us who must recognise our need for one thing more... peace with God.
