

God wants our lives to have purpose and direction... for us to become the people He intended us to be. He reaches out to us in love...

For God so loved the world that he gave his one and only Son, that whoever believes in him shall not perish but have eternal life.

John 3:16

But He also leaves us with this challenge...

...how shall we escape if we ignore such a great salvation?

Thank you !

Two little words that can make such a big difference.

When you're tired and discouraged.. when things have been difficult and you feel taken for granted..

..'Thank you' can really brighten your day.

Your kind and efficient service is gratefully appreciated.

With sincere thanks

Yet in serving others you're following the best possible example...

God's Word, the Bible, tells us of the greatest example of all.

The Lord Jesus Christ, God in the form of man, came into this world 2000 years ago, not to rule but to serve...

Who, being in very nature God, did not consider equality with God something to be grasped, but made himself nothing, taking the very nature of a servant, being made in human likeness.

Philippians 2:6-7

Only He was 'good enough to pay the price of sin' ...

...he humbled himself and became obedient to death - even death on a cross!

Philippians 2:8

Raised to life again 3 days later He still offers us today the only way to be 'put right' with God the Father...

I am the way and the truth and the life. No-one comes to the Father except through me.

John 14:6

...the only way to escape a lost eternity...

...there is now no condemnation for those who are in Christ Jesus.

Romans 8:1

In seeking His forgiveness, turning from all we know to be wrong and asking Him into our lives as Saviour and Lord, we're given a brand new start...

...if anyone is in Christ, that person is a new creation. The old has gone, the new is here!

2 Corinthians 5:17

And by entering into this personal relationship with Him... we'll serve Him, and our fellow man, not because we have to, but because we want to!
