A Friend in High Places

A Friend in High Places

To some it may be the journey of a lifetime, whilst for others it's just part of the regular routine.

Yet many of us get quite anxious about flying... but not, it would seem, due to a fear of crashing!

The root of the problem for many of us is that having left the ground, we've lost control of our lives!

In such circumstances how good it is to have a Friend in high places...

Safety Record

Of course, it's well known that we're actually safer on board an aircraft than in the family car. And yet real peace of mind can be so hard to find, especially when we face ill-health, depression and relationship problems.

Down through the years however, many have found a unique quality of strength and assurance in entering a personal relationship with God, through His Son, the Lord Jesus Christ, who says...

Come to me, all you who are weary and burdened, and I will give you rest.

Matthew 11:28

But to know the peace OF God we must first find peace WITH God. Again Christ Jesus points the way...

I am the way and the truth and the life. No-one comes to the Father except through me.

John 14:6

But this is only part of the story...

Something To Declare

Despite strict custom checks and airport security there will always be some who attempt to outwit the authorities. One day however, in accordance with God's timetable, we will all be found out...

If we claim to be without sin, we deceive ourselves and the truth is not in us.

1 John 1:8

He won't need a special 'flight recorder' to reveal even our innermost secrets, the consequences of which will be inescapable...

...people are destined to die once, and after that to face judgment...

Hebrews 9:27

Thankfully there is a course of action which we can take today... and it's the only 'passport' to peace with God...

Changing Direction

Air travel, more than anything else, has created the 'global village' we know so well. But although technology puts us within easy reach of many far away places, access to God is still only possible through the sacrificial death of the Lord Jesus Christ on that barren hillside called Calvary...

For Christ died for sins once for all, the righteous for the unrighteous, to bring you to God.

1 Peter 3:18

And in response to all that was accomplished on that Cross we're called to discard the 'excess baggage' of all that we know to be wrong and invite the risen Lord Jesus into our lives by His Spirit. In this way, just as the law of aerodynamics overcomes the law of gravity, so we're able to say...

...through Christ Jesus the law of the Spirit of life set me free from the law of sin and death.

Romans 8:2

...and not only do we receive forgiveness, but a completely new start in life, with the motivation and power to live a new lifestyle... pleasing to Him...

...if anyone is in Christ, that person is a new creation. The old has gone, the new is here!

2 Corinthians 5:17

Travelling Companion

Having a friend to accompany us on a long journey can make all the difference, and there is One more reliable than any other...

...there is a friend who sticks closer than a brother.

Proverbs 18:24

To those who would become His true followers He spells out the challenge of loyal commitment...

You are my friends if you do what I command.

John 15:14

...but also promises His everlasting companionship...

Never will I leave you; never will I forsake you.

Hebrews 13:5

Safe Arrival

To find ourselves on the wrong flight, bound for the wrong destination, could prove a disaster. And yet the same is true when applied to life. Many of us are already blissfully unaware that we face great peril...

There is a way that appears to be right, but in the end it leads to death.

Proverbs 14:12

Many of us travel through life, hoping for the best, but Christ Jesus doesn't leave that option open to us...

Whoever is not with me is against me...

Matthew 12:30

Whoever believes in him is not condemned, but whoever does not believe stands condemned already because they have not believed in the name of God's one and only Son.

John 3:18

Now is always the right time to be sure of your destination. You may already be in the 'departure lounge' of life, and simply not realise it. Why not confirm your 'booking' today!
