Welcome To Your New Home

Welcome to your new home

At last... the waiting and wondering is over. The deal's been clinched and it's yours. You have a new home.

But whether it's your first or what may be your last, there's always that special sense of relief and excitement that's hard to describe.

And of course with every new home there's the promise of a new beginning... in more ways than one.

the hallway

The hall is usually the way into our home... and to all we've accumulated to make life as pleasant and comfortable as we can.

Of course, it's not only Englishmen who consider their home to be their castle! We're all tempted to believe that our protection, security and well-being lies in the home we've been able to afford.

Yet down through the years, many have found that true and lasting security is not found in bricks and mortar, but in another direction altogether...

The Lord is the stronghold of my life.

Psalm 27:1

But to know the peace of God in the midst of our struggles, we must first find peace WITH God. His Son, the Lord Jesus Christ, points the way...

I am the way and the truth and the life. No-one comes to the Father except through me.

John 14:6

the kitchen

The kitchen is so important to any home, but it's also where a lot of rubbish is produced! Whilst we can usually get rid of this quite easily, the 'rubbish' in our lives is much more problematic...

...immorality, impurity... hatred... jealousy, fits of rage, selfish ambition... envy; drunkenness...

Galatians 5:19-21

...and this poses a very serious 'health risk' to our long term well-being...

...people are destined to die once, and after that to face judgment.

Hebrews 9:27

Thankfully, God has already provided a unique form of 'garbage disposal'... and no matter how many skeletons there may be in our cupboard!

the bathroom

The bathroom is where we wash away the dirt of everyday living. But while we can make sure we're clean on the outside, no form of 'self-improvement plan' can make us clean on the inside. Yet, that's exactly why the Lord Jesus Christ gave His life on the Cross of Calvary... taking the punishment for our wrong-doing...

You see, at just the right time, when we were still powerless, Christ died for the ungodly.

Romans 5:6

And although it may take only a coat of paint to revitalise the decor in our home, God says our lives need more than just some superficial renovation.

In turning away from all we know to be wrong and asking the risen Christ Jesus into our lives to become our Saviour and Lord, we not only receive forgiveness, but a brand new beginning...

...if anyone is in Christ, the new creation has come: The old has gone, the new is here!

2 Corinthians 5:17

the living room

The living room is where we spend much of what we call our free time. But this is also a reminder that if we're serious about 'getting right' with God we must realise that HE has the right to order our circumstances and determine our future.

We may never be called to face the kind of sacrifice made by the Lord Jesus, but He makes clear the attitude He expects from those of us who would be His true followers...

Whoever wants to be my disciple must deny themselves and take up their cross daily and follow me.

Luke 9:23

the bedroom

The bedroom is such a welcome proposition at the end of a busy day! Yet, rest and relaxation can also lead us to a false sense of peace and security.

It's all too easy to put our confidence in our possessions and to believe that in leading a decent life everything will work out fine in the end. But God says something quite different...

There is a way that appears to be right, but in the end it leads to death.

Proverbs 16:25

For God so loved the world that he gave his one and only Son, that whoever believes in him shall not perish but have eternal life.

John 3:16

And to ignore God's warning would surely be unthinkable...

...whoever does not believe stands condemned already...

John 3:18
