GLASGOW

City of Change

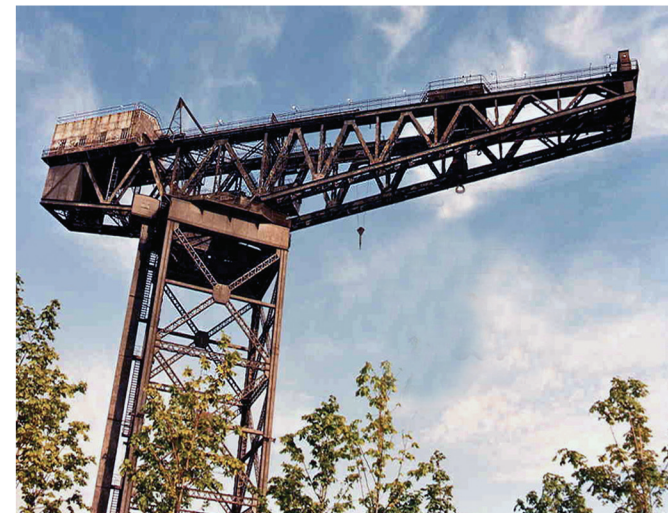

Finding the WAY

*From bustling shopping precincts
to smart waterside apartments... Glasgow, Scotland's largest city, is without doubt a place of progress these days.*

*But in addition to the architecture, the night
life and the business opportunities there's much more to be found in Glasgow today, by residents and visitors alike... so long as we're willing to look in the right direction...*

through Glasgow

True Strength

The famous Finnieston Crane towers over the banks of the Clyde... a powerful symbol of strength from days gone by. Perhaps it's also a reminder that each of us needs a source of true strength to help carry the burdens of daily living... depression, anxiety... the pain of broken relationships.

Yet in the midst of all the struggles of 21st century life the Lord Jesus Christ still says...

*Come to me,
all you who are weary
and burdened, and I will give you rest.*

Matthew 11:28

But to know the peace of God we must first find peace WITH God... and again Christ Jesus points us in the right direction when He says...

...I am the way and the truth and the life. No-one comes to the Father except through me.

John 14:6

Of course, this is only part of the story...

Certain Hope

The universities of Glasgow have a great deal to offer students from all over the world. However, educational excellence of itself is not the key to real fulfilment and contentment in life.

Finding a right relationship with God is much more important. He calls us to face up to those things in our lives which offend and separate us from Him...

...sexual immorality, impurity, lust, evil desires and greed, which is idolatry.

Colossians 3:5

...your iniquities have separated you from your God...

Isaiah 59:2

And therefore our Maker has every right to bring us to account one day...

...man is destined to die once, and after that to face judgment...

Hebrews 9:27

Thankfully, He has already provided a way of escape...

Ultimate Sacrifice

The War Memorial in George Square commemorates the sacrificial death of Glaswegians in the service of their country. Yet the greatest sacrifice of all took place 2000 years ago on a barren hillside called Calvary... God in the form of man, taking the punishment we deserve... to make it possible for us to find a right relationship with Him...

But God demonstrates his own love for us in this: While we were still sinners, Christ died for us.

Romans 5:8

With the decline of heavy industry new skills are required to meet the needs of our ever-changing society. This kind of 'change of direction' is also necessary if we're to 'get right' with God. With His help He calls us to turn away from all we know to be wrong...

He himself bore our sins in his body on the tree, so that we might die to sins and live for righteousness...

1 Peter 2:24

So, in seeking forgiveness and asking the risen Lord Jesus into our lives by His Spirit, we're given a brand new start... with the desire and power to live a new lifestyle...

...if anyone is in Christ, he is a new creation; the old has gone, the new has come!

2 Corinthians 5:17

Real Commitment

European Capital of Culture... National City of Sport... UK City of Architecture and Design... the awards simply keep on coming. The old 'spit and sawdust' image of Glasgow belongs firmly in yesteryear.

Of course, the very heart of Glasgow is really her people, known the world over for the sincerity of their friendliness and generosity. And in a similar way the Lord Jesus Christ also looks beyond the public image of all who would become His true followers...

Man looks at the outward appearance, but the LORD looks at the heart.

1 Samuel 16:7

...and He calls us to face up to the cost of real loyalty and commitment...

If anyone would come after me, he must deny himself and take up his cross daily and follow me.

Luke 9:23

Lasting Peace

Rouken Glen on a fine day can seem the perfect picture of peace. Yet the greatest, most precious peace of all, is promised to those of us who are willing to place our future under His control and direction...

Peace I leave with you; my peace I give to you. I do not give to you as the world gives. Do not let your hearts be troubled and do not be afraid.

John 14:27

Sadly many of us still prefer to ignore or reject Him, building our lives on a false sense of security... but which will have unthinkable consequences...

For God so loved the world that he gave his one and only Son, that whoever believes in him shall not perish but have eternal life.

John 3:16

...whoever does not believe stands condemned already...

John 3:18

What better time than NOW to seek change in Glasgow?

...it is time to seek the LORD.

Hosea 10:12
